THE PURPOSE of the Journal of Psychology and Theology is to communicate recent scholarly thinking on the interrelationships of psychological and theological concepts and to consider the application of these concepts to a variety of professional settings.

MANUSCRIPTS submitted for publication should be sent to J. Roland Fleck, Co-Editor. (See inside back cover for suggestions concerning style and format.)

SUBSCRIPTION rates are:

$8.00 per year (four volumes)
15.00 per two years
20.00 per three years

The Journal is published four times a year: Winter, Spring, Summer and Fall. All communication concerning subscriptions, change of address, advertising, nonreceipt of an issue, and other business matters should be sent to the Managing Editor.

THE OPINIONS AND CONCLUSIONS published in the Journal of Psychology and Theology are those of the authors and do not necessarily represent the position of the Rosemead Graduate School of Psychology. The intent of the editors is to place before the evangelical community articles that have bearing on the nature of man from a biblical perspective.

The Journal is listed in the following abstracting and indexing services:

3. Articles dealing with pastoral counseling or the theory and application of psychological data to the work of the church.
4. Theoretical, research and applied articles dealing with the family and relationships within the Christian community.
5. Reactions to current or past journal articles.
6. Reviews of relevant books from the field of psychology and theology.
7. Brief reviews of recent research studies of potential interest to the readership.

AUTHORS SUBMITTING A MANUSCRIPT SHOULD:

1. Send two copies (typewritten and double-spaced) to J. Roland Fleck, Co-Editor, Journal of Psychology and Theology, 1409 North Walnut Grove Avenue, Rosemead, California 91770.
2. Follow the guidelines on format and style provided in the revised Publications Manual of the American Psychological Association (1200 Seventeenth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036).
3. Include an abstract of no more than 150 words on a separate sheet of paper.
4. Send a glossy print, numbered lightly in pencil on the back, of each figure to be included in the paper.
5. Limit manuscript to 20 double-spaced pages, including tables, figures and references.

All submitted manuscripts will be acknowledged promptly and processed as quickly as possible. The initial review process generally requires one or two months. The time span between initial submission and appearance in print of accepted manuscripts is approximately six months.
